

NHD Topic Conclusion

The last key part of your NHD project is to summarize your findings in a clear, coherent manner in the conclusion. The main goal of this section of your project is to sum up the main ideas of your research and to demonstrate the significance of your topic in history. One question you want to keep in mind is: Why is my topic important in history? To do this well, you will need to re-address your thesis, make connections from your topic to today and/or show the significance of your topic in history. You should also make a clear connection to the NHD theme.

This conclusion should be approximately 200 - 300 words and should include your actual thesis statement.

Please use the following format and criteria to complete this conclusion.

FORMAT; TYPED

NAME:

TOPIC:

CONCLUSION:

Thesis Statement: Start your conclusion with by restating your thesis statement.

Connection to NHD Theme: Write a couple of sentences to address how your topic is related to the overall NHD theme of the Individual in History

Topic Significance: The final part of your conclusion should demonstrate the topic's significance in history. This may be done either by showing the connection of your topic to today or by showing how your topic impacted history. This is where you answer the important question: Why is my topic important in history?
