To complete this application, please attach your current unofficial transcript with all high school Latin classes highlighted (can be accessed on the student portal).

Reflect on the considerations for membership and your personal qualities (see previous page) before answering these questions. For each question, give one or two personal examples and elaborate.

1. Why did you choose to study Latin and why have you continued?
2. How do you demonstrate enthusiasm for the Latin language in and/or outside the classroom?
3. How do you show your acceptance or appreciation of other cultures?
4. Select two personal goals from the list on the previous page and tell us how you plan to develop and/or grow in these areas.

The statements above are true and answered in my own words.
