

UNITED WE READ

GLENWOOD MIDDLE SCHOOL'S ONE BOOK PROGRAM

This summer the students and faculty of GMS will be reading Schooled by Gordon Korman. When we return to school in August, we will be using this shared experience as a part of our opening activities. We will be hosting the author, Gordon Korman, in December to celebrate the program.

Synopsis of Schooled: Homeschooled on an isolated "alternate farm commune" that has dwindled since the 1960s to 2 members, 13-year-old Cap has always lived with his grandmother, Rain. When she is hospitalized, Cap is taken in by a social worker and sent—like a lamb to slaughter—to middle school. Smart and capable, innocent and inexperienced (he learned to drive on the farm, but he has never watched television), long-haired Cap soon becomes the butt of pranks. He reacts in unexpected ways and, in the end, elevates those around him to higher ground. Hysterically funny, this book packs a subtle message about remaining true to oneself in the middle school mayhem. -Booklist, starred review
