

5th Grade Weekly Homework

The following homework is ongoing throughout the year. Homework in math, spelling, and grammar, is given to the students every night, Monday through Thursday, unless otherwise directed by the teacher. Homework is due the next day and students do receive an effort grade for doing their homework and turning it in on time. The weekly reading homework is typically issued on Friday and due the following Friday. Students should be writing their homework down in their assignment book each day and should refer to it each night to make sure they are on track.
